

Mudford Community Infants School

Values for People who live in Britain

At our school we have agreed that these are the values that all who live in Britain should aspire to live by. How have you met them today?

Kindness

In all we say and do

Honesty

To be honest with our thoughts, feelings, actions and beliefs

Fairness

To treat others how you want to be treated and to act and play by agreed rules

Lawfulness

To know right from wrong, to make good choices and to abide by class charters and the rules of Great Britain

Respect

To respect what people say, believe and think.